Excerpt: . . . s technology, including the spread of strong encryption, and the growth of foreign denial and deception activities designed to conceal, or mislead as to, activities of concern to U. S. intelligence collectors, analysts, and policymakers. As new challenges and threats confront the country, the Committee plays an ever more important role in ensuring that the Intelligence Community adapts to and meets these evolving threats and intelligence challenges. The need to modernize the Intelligence Communitys infrastructure--both hardware (e. g. , collection, communications, dissemination, and support systems) and human software (e. g. leadership, motivation, innovation, language skills, and analysis) with which the Community approaches the future--was a central theme of the Committees work in the 106th Congress. As in the 105th Congress, the Committee built upon the work of the SSCI Technical Advisory Group (TAG) in identifying problems, solutions, and opportunities for Committee action. Reflecting the recommendations of the TAG as well as other problems and shortfalls identified by the Committee, the Committee in the 106th Congress has continued...
