Of Mains Ornithoigical Society. of birds, nests, and eggs. Among the most interesting things in Mr. Merrills collection from the State was the first nest and eggs of the Golden-crowned Kinglet ever taken. This is the set described in all the older works dealing with the oology of this part of the country. Another interesting specimen in Mr. Merrills collection was the Kiimlien sGull, taken at the time when this species was just on the point of being described. Mr. Merrills bird was one of those used in differentiating the characteristics of this species. On returning to the hotel from Mr. Merrills, a short business meeting was held in the parlor of the Penobscot Exchange, with President Spinney in the chair. After the reading of the secretarys report of the last annual meeting, the following committees were appointed by the chair. On Nominations: Messrs. Knight, Norton, vSpinney. On Resolutions: Messrs. Swain, Ellis, Powers. On Auditing Accounts: Prof. E.A. Lee; Miss Mabel Ridley. On...
