Excerpt: .grin, calculated to let the other passengers know that he appreciated the joke, and wouldn t have had it otherwise. Thinks she s plaguing me, I suppose, he confided to the audience generally. Thinks I ll have to walk across the room and speak to her, and that will be one on me; but she ll find out-- Lord of heavens, what a mouth! And they say that baby looks like me. If he does, my wife has good grounds for a divorce. Shut up, here! Hush up, can t you? Here comes all the passengers from that other train-- Yah-yah-yah--ma-ma-ma-ma-- A late affliction, sir? asked a melancholy man, with a weed around his hat, who had just entered the depot. Six months, responded the unhappy parent. Then a maiden lady with a bandbox stopped in front of the j air, and resurrected a dirty...
