Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, Vol. 3: Standard Forms for Financial Reports of Colleges, Universities, and Technical Schools The present bulletin is the result of a prolonged inquiry concerning the practice of universities and colleges in the United States in the rendering of public financial statements of their receipts and of their expenditures. It represents also the results of many conferences with the financial officers of colleges and universities, as well as with public accountants and others familiar with the object which such financial statements should serve. Tax-supported institutions are required by law to print an annual detailed statement of their receipts and expenditures. These reports in some cases simply give the list of separate vouchers. While this may have a value in complying with the state law, such reports serve only a limited purpose in showing the actual operations of the institutions concerned. Nevertheless, it is true that the tax-supported institutions have had a real source of strength by reason of this enforced publicity. Among endowed institutions only a small minority...
