The purport of the message was clear, but the signature puzzled me. The following day I showed this writing to a friend, asking her if she had any idea who X was. Why, she replied, don't you know that that is what we always call Mr. V I did not know. Now, Mr. was six thousand miles from Paris, and, as we supposed, in the land of the living. But a day or two later a letter came to me from America, stating that Mr. had died in the western part of the United States, a few days before I received in Paris the automatic message signed X. So far as I know, I was the first person in Europe to be informed of his death, and I immediately called on my friend to tell her that X had passed out. She...
