Vanderbilt University Quarterly A Record of University Life and Work VoL XIV JULY-SEPTEMBER No. 3 VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY AND THE CHURCH. In a previous issue of the Quarterly was printed a careful analysis of the attitude of the General Conference of 1914 toward Vanderbilt University and of the action taken by that Conference with reference to its relations with the Board of Trust. It is proper that we should now follow that up with an examination of the status resulting from that legislation and the consequent action of the Board. In the news department of this number will be found a report of the recent annual session of the Board of Trust, together with the papers adopted bearing on the action of the Conference and the future course of the University. The conclusion of the Board that the General Conference by its official action had severed...
