Mr. Winsor's interest in the University's collections of portraits had been manifested already; it was chiefly due to him that the series of articles on Harvard Portraits in the Graduates Magazine was undertaken, and he himself contributed the paper on Savage's Washington. The portrait of an historical personage was in his view an historical document. It is not surprising, therefore, that he wished to emphasize the biographical interest of the various pieces, particularly in the case of those men who have had to do with the upbuilding of the University or who have in any wise touched its life; both as Librarian and as President of the Memorial Society he gave unsparingly of his time and energy to Harvard's history...
