Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 154 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This compilation of poems is not only from personal experiences, but also in regards to many other individuals which I have spoken with. From some of these discussions, I have also developed rare connections with these said individuals who have willingly given their permission for me to analyze their stories and experiences; from these pieces, I was able to build life from their words, and also from my own. Many situations have presented themselves with much effort on my part, and in some ways it became fairly easy to draw certain conclusions. A Diary of Undefined Lives: Beyond the Depths of Poetry, pertains to our very own lives, way of life, how we live it, and what we have grasped from the experiences. This book and how it is detailed will serve the purpose of reminding all, that we have and share a very special purpose. We are all apart of each other, and even if it happens to be just one person that tries to make a difference, the findings, and outcome affect us all. In this way it is fair to say that we may analyze and hope-fully learn and accept some of those personal effects about ourselves while changing the ones encrypted that influences the fear of change, and/or accepting ourselves. We all have moments in our lives where, it seem as though nothing can go right, but surely, if we bear in mind that everything we do, we are not alone, and that there is always someone else that can relate to the very events which we take part in, we will def-initely reach that point where we will acquire that feeling...
