O. , 2007. LC Number: KF27 . H573 2005d OCLC Number: (OCoLC)123906978 Subject: Emergency management -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 For example, representatives of the Arlington County Fire De-partment, the Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Inves-tigation had been meeting for years prior to 9 11. Each understood the others needs and had established a high-degree of trust. Be-cause of those relationships and understandings, each agency was represented at the command post within 10 minutes. The unified command structure facilitated communications, operability and saved lives. Mr. Chairman, we must build a national capability to respond that includes the ability to use the National Incident Management System. To accomplish this goal, we make the following rec-ommendations. One, the Department of Homeland Security must establish a baseline capacity by requiring everyone from the executive level to the responder level, to take the online National Incident Management System introduction course. Two, the Department of Homeland Security should issue a list of practical steps that each state must accomplish over the next year to become NIMS-compliant, including a requirement to use the Na-tional Incident Management System in exercises as a prerequisite to receiving state homeland security grant funds. Without exercise, learning the National Incident Management System would be like learning to ride a bike by reading a book. Three, the Department of Homeland Security must foster region-alism by requiring each states homeland security plan to identify regions within its borders, create regional boards, and require those boards to submit a mutual aid plan to the state for inclusion in the federal grant application. Fourth,...
