I am ashamed of myself for crying, Kate; but really I cannot help it. Gerard has insulted me so cruelly. Cries. Once that wicked little Sponge got him away by the queerest story about your father and some dishonored notes, and afterwards told me the whole tale was a fiction of his own to relieve me! KATE. But how did he impose on the Captain There must have been some truth to carry him off his balance. Ill ask papa if ever he endorsed or accepted for Gerard. I dont think he did, for he detests him, and wont come here while Gerard remains your guest. BERTHA. That wont be long, for he goes to-morrow. I told him to KATE. Oh, you darling, did...
