Miss Florence M. Marshall, principal of the Manhattan Trade School for Girls presents a very complete report on the organization of the trade school for girls, the attendance, instruction, placement of students and sale of products. She gives as the aims and purposes of the school: (1) to train young girls who are forced to leave school and become wage earners, to enter the skilled trades; (2) to imbue them with a love and respect for work; and (3) to arouse in them a desire to become the best type of workers. In the new experiments tried she mentions, (1) the opening of an annex to accommodate 150 girls; (2) trade extension classes...
